

Cambridge Family Lawyer

Cambridge Family Lawyer - Several issues take place when you and your spouse choose to end your marriage or common-law relationship. It is important that you have sound legal counsel and understand the impact that your choices will have on you and on your family's future. Our company offers expert advice and counsel on such issues as custody, access, pension and property division, business property and debt division. Our firm is committed to providing you with the essential legal services you need to navigate through the family law procedure quickly and efficiently.

With whom would your children live? When would the children see the non-custodial parent? Who is responsible for financially support? Who would keep the matrimonial home? Who will be accountable for paying whichever debts incurred throughout the marriage? And, if you ran a family business, how would the business assets be divided?

Our firm will assist you in the preparation of a Separation Agreement which will provide comprehensive and clear answers to these questions. A formal written agreement is recommended so that you can be free to concentrate on your new life. This Separation Agreement, as soon as finalized, is a binding agreement on both parties.

This agreement could be included into the final Divorce Order. An uncontested divorce occurs if you and your spouse agree to divorce and have agreement regarding all major problems. An uncontested divorce could proceed quickly through a three-part application procedure. Our responsibility is to be able to help you in the preparation of all required documents and to file them quickly so that you can continue with your life.

When you and your spouse cannot agree on issues, we call this a contested divorce. Those problems can be addressed through settlement conferences, court proceedings, informal negotiations between parties and/or trials. Our lawyers can help you through all stages of the court process. Our objective is to protect your rights and advocate for the best interests of you and your love ones.

If a common-law relationship needs a different procedure regarding support, custody, pension division and property division issues. We can likewise help you with the termination of a common-law relationship connected problems.