

Best Divorce Lawyer in Cambridge

Best Divorce Lawyer in Cambridge - When planning our estate there are several stuff which you should take into consideration beyond just a Last Will and Testament. Reducing and deferring taxes, selecting the beneficiary of your life insurance benefits, pension plans, homes, businesses, and practices are all things that you must take into account. Our company is experienced in different problems regarding wills and estates and is capable of providing efficient and valuable estate planning advice.

Preparing for sickness is a complex matter that is included in most comprehensive estate plans. Using suggestion from our veteran lawyers, our clients can prepare their Enduring Power of Attorney, Personal Directive, and Dependent Adult Applications.

We are skilled in the matters of charitable giving and the succession of family businesses. Several of our lawyers frequently publish articles and attend lectures related to estate planning.

We even specialize in probate and estate litigation in the fields of Dependent Relief Act Application, challenging Wills, Interstate Succession Act Issues, matrimonial property issues, same sex relationships and adult interdependent relationships.