

Divorce in Cambridge

Divorce in Cambridge - Our company has amongst the largest municipal and planning law departments in the country. Our department's specialized planners and lawyers practice exclusively in problems concerning municipal law, development law and land use planning.

We represent and advise landowners, developers, financial institutions along with public interest groups. We represent municipalities in all matters regarding municipal law, like for instance municipal finance and restructuring, and we assist with by-law drafting and negotiating different kinds of documents and agreements.

Our lawyers appear frequently before the courts, different land-use tribunals, local and regional councils, committees of adjustments and land division committees.
