

Cambridge Divorce Lawyer

Cambridge Divorce Lawyer - Our staff and lawyers are committed to helping you through this difficult and stressful time as family law is the most emotional involved. Our lawyers are experienced in the proceedings of family law and would provide you the data you require to make educated decisions. Our firm offers a wide variety of services, varying from complex divorce trials to drafting agreements.

Our aim is to help you understand all your legal rights and obligations, whether you are adopting, getting divorced or getting married.

We can help explain these obligations and rights when thinking about marriage, such as Tax and Estate Planning, Wills, and Pre-Nuptial Marriage Agreements.

Our firm can provide legal recommendations when undergoing separation or divorce, regarding support payments, child custody, and access, to spousal maintenance, and division of property.

Family Law Lawyers are required for separation agreements, spousal property transfers, adoptions, child apprehension cases, family farm business arrangements and preparation of Wills.

Our lawyers help you to make well-informed decisions by consulting with experts like for instance psychologists, family counselors, pension evaluators, accountants, real estate appraisers and tax specialists. Our aim is to offer you affordable, quick and effective experience.
