

Cambridge Real Estate Lawyers

Cambridge Real Estate Lawyers - Our company specializes in Real Estate Law and is recognized leader within the development, sale and purchase of real property, real estate financing and leasing transactions. We can assist clients in the development, construction and management of commercial and residential condominiums, residential rental projects, office buildings, shopping centers, retirement homes and hotels. Our clients comprise developers of commercial, residential, institutional, and industrial real estate, international and domestic real property investors along with providers of construction services, financing and property management.

We have represented both public entities and private developers in transactions comprising public-private partnerships (P3) for infrastructure as we are knowledgeable and skilled regarding the policy, political and institutional matters included in structuring and implementing transactions.

We assist clients with procurement, infrastructure and financing planning. Our multi-disciplinary method enables our real estate lawyers to draw on the resources of other experts in our firm. We provide our clients different suggestion required to do well in real estate joint ventures and financings, syndications, reorganizations, environmental assessments and financial workouts.
