

Cambridge Real Estate Lawyer

Cambridge Real Estate Lawyer - Our firm has broad knowledge dealing with all aspects of commercial real estate. Our legal professionals have the knowledge and expertise to guide our clients through different circumstances. We have built several long term relationships along with our clients, which include life insurance firms, lending institutions, crown corporations, various levels of government, land developers, contractors, property managers, asset managers, landlords and tenants.

A lot of managers of assets and portfolios and legal departments of huge organizations employ our services and estate group members to assist and advise them concerning the development, administration and acquisition of cross-country real estate portfolios. Interaction between professionals from other disciplines and our real estate professionals is common in order to ensure that our clients get quality service. Among the different disciplines consist of secured lending transactions, mergers and acquisitions transactions, big project and infrastructure financing transactions, and private-public partnerships.

The full service nature of our practice, combined with the experience and expertise of the professionals who work for us, enable us to quickly and efficiently come to a reasonable resolution to all of your legal real estate requirements.