

Law Firms in Cambridge

Law Firms in Cambridge - The goal of Our Tax Group is to protect our clients' assets through structuring of business transactions, domestic and international tax planning, and litigating tax disagreements. Our lawyers are highly regarded on a national and international basis for their innovations in international and domestic tax planning. We are recognized for the innovative use of corporations, trusts, joint ventures, partnerships as well as other vehicles. Our Tax Group is often requested by various law firms along with accounting firms seeking our specialized knowledge for their clients.

We advise clients regarding the tax-advantages of all kinds of transactions. Our tax lawyers work closely along with our firm's Corporate Finance and Corporate/Commercial Groups so as to produce the most positive tax consequences possible all through business arrangements, transactions and strategies.

We have built superb relations along with the taxation agencies, that allows us to effectively represent clients needing advance tax rulings, promoting legislative change, and disputing and negotiating the settlement of tax reassessments. In situations where tax disagreements can't be settled, our Tax Team litigators represent clients before all levels of the courts.
