

Sports Law Cambridge

Sports Law Cambridge - Our firm assists lots of individual athletes, both amateur and professional, as well as various sports organizations with their problems concerning sports law. Our clients perform in various sports comprising baseball, hockey, football, and track and field to name some.

Our company has vast knowledge in dealing with issues that arise within Minor Hockey. Our lawyers are knowledgeable and well seasoned in the several situations that may occur including negotiations, administrative hearings, and in trial.

Often, our sports law practitioners are asked to appear on radio, television, and other media due to their comprehensive depth of experience.