

Cambridge Legal Aid

Cambridge Legal Aid - Our company's Education and Public Law team advises and represents school boards and educator organizations in different legal issues affecting them.

Our team is experienced making use of the numerous education law and public law help we offer including labour and employment relations, contract negotiations, general civil and commercial litigation, special education, human rights, judicial review and appeals, administrative law, freedom of information and privacy law, health law, constitutional law and conflict of interest law. We likewise advise and act on behalf of educator clients in aspects of corporate-commercial, like for example municipal law, real estate law and construction law.

We offer comprehensive, effective and timely services to help educators handle the complicated problems confronting them.

Among our various clients consist of public and Catholic school boards, Ministries of Education, boards and agencies and governmental commissions. Our Education and Public Law practitioners work closely together with experts in our Business Law Group and Real Estate Group.

Our company and our lawyers are usually called upon to make presentations at national conferences and in-service seminars. They regularly publish articles on education and public law in magazines and journals.