

Lawyer in Cambridge

Lawyer in Cambridge - Our office provides services and advice in addition to representing our clients in both public and private sectors whose activities are subject to environmental regulation. We have a very specialized environmental expertise in a broad range of legal disciplines. Our specialized environmental law practitioners work closely together with professionals in municipal law, litigation and corporate/commercial law.

We provide strategic environmental and project management advice, since we know that our clients should balance solid business decisions with sound environmental practices. We act as counsel to proponents of major infrastructure projects all through environmental assessments.

Our Environmental Team gives regulatory intervention training that goes beyond the "traditional" legal advice given by the majority of firms. Through field rehearsals and seminars, we prepare clients for potential regulatory intervention to help avoid enforcement procedures.

We give counsel to organizations making corporate transactions of various size and includes the purchase and sale of assets, shares, and associated finances.

Our brownfields redevelopment services comprise advising on tax incremental financing; initiating and processing all required applications and approvals; engaging and overseeing consultants in order to prepare remedial action plans; Site Specific Risk Assessments and/or Records of Site Condition; and liaising along with Ministry of Environment and municipal officials.

To deal with regulatory inspections and investigations, our lawyers give creative and practical solutions, which help in preparation of our clients potential future investigations. Our experienced litigators represent clients charged under municipal, provincial and federal environmental and associated legislation.
