

Cambridge Lawyer

Cambridge Lawyer - Our tax law group's services span the full range of taxation areas: goods and services tax and provincial sales tax, personal and corporate income tax, and international tax. Our clients consist of individuals, corporates, trusts, estates, and not-for-profit organizations such as charities. Our tax lawyers draw on other areas of our company for quality recommendation in different tax law transactions.

Our company can offer services for individual clients, like for instance assistance in reducing taxes throughout their lifetimes; assistance in maximizing their estates; assistance with using deferral opportunities and prudent savings tax. Lessening the tax burdens of beneficiaries is vital to clients and we provide recommendation and assistance regarding estates and trusts.

We help business clients with public financings, mergers and acquisitions and corporate reorganizations, both internationally and domestically. We advise on the use of specialized entities and financial intermediaries in tax planning. We assist domestic and foreign borrowers and lenders to structure their transactions in the most tax effective way.

We have significant knowledge in commodity tax law. We focus on helping organizations and individuals on many problems of tax related to goods and services tax and retail sales. We work closely along with clients involved in global and domestic trade in identifying tax-saving opportunities. We also assist with compliance issues.

We have helped several clients through the tax review process. We can help guide you through the initial phase to the resolution of disputes in a cost-effective and timely way.

Our group of tax law lawyers are completely devoted to the analysis of the constantly changing developments within the tax law field. Our up-to-date expertise enables us to advise about matters arising from government policies, judicial interpretation and amendments to tax legislation.

We help organizations to incorporate as charitable and non-profit organizations, and provide all the connected suggestion about governance concerns, insurance problems, risk management, fiduciary responsibilities and strategic planning.

Our litigators in tax law have numerous years of knowledge handling concerns of tax disputes consisting of retail sales tax, goods and services tax, income tax, as well as different other disputes under taxation statutes.