

Cambridge Business Law

Cambridge Business Law - Our Business Law team assists businesses of all sizes and types in achieving their objectives. We believe in and offer client-centered and value-based legal services. With our trademark combination of conventional and innovative approaches to business law, we assist a lot of this nation's most successful and well-known commercial enterprises, and assist with development varying in size from millions to hundreds of millions of dollars.

Our firm works as an integrated team with other lawyers, engineers and specialists across North America and all-around the world. Our business and legal recommendation has helped hundreds of major resource-based developments reach their goals, from mining projects to gas and oil developments, from agribusiness to pulp and paper. We design joint ventures and creative partnerships amongst co-operatives, governments, companies, merchant bankers, venture capitalists and financial institutions.

We offer sound business recommendation to clients concerning mergers, acquisitions and divestitures throughout the entire transaction cycle, consisting of structuring, legal due diligence, and negotiating offers to purchase, letters of intent and agreements of purchase and sale.

Our firm has a strong practice in commercial law to serve our clients in the area of tax planning and the governance and structuring of various entities. We have skillfully negotiated project financing, construction and engineering agreements, and international commodity marketing agreements for business enterprises.

We help grassroots entrepreneurship through our services to small and medium sized businesses. We assist in the development of effective business and management structures. We can help entrepreneurs' access capital and establish positive relationships with suppliers and customers. Our lawyers have extensive skill with cross-border transactions and could help small companies to become successful exporters.
