

Copyright Lawyer Cambridge

Copyright Lawyer Cambridge - If there are not enough systems to decrease risks are not in place, the complex web of international regulations and laws governing competitive conduct in today's world, can leave companies facing various corporate compliance issues. The numerous consequences can include hefty fines for alleged price fixing, and jail time for those people whose businesses have violated antitrust laws. Lawsuits by private people, like class action lawsuits, can lead to settlements or damage awards amounting to millions of dollars. Our company gives business clients practical recommendation and effective representation to assist them establish corporate compliance systems to maximize their ability to compete effectively and lawfully. Our competition/antitrust lawyers provide professional counsel in connection with difficult problems which can adversely impact the operations and ability to survive of a business.

Our Competition/Antitrust lawyers work in all areas of advertising, marketing and competition/antitrust law. Our lawyers are frequently requested to speak and write on competition law topics for legal, business and academic audiences. We have knowledge in mergers, price fixing investigations, packaging, product pricing, labeling, distribution and advertising problems. Our litigators have represented clients before the courts, the Competition Tribunal and the Canadian International Trade Tribunal. Our lawyers draw upon other members throughout our business for expertise in trade remedies, intellectual property, commercial and franchising issues associated with product distribution. We likewise assist in the defence of quasi-criminal and criminal allegations.