You should call us right away if you are under investigation or have been charged. Do not give up your right to consult counsel and your right to remain silent upon detention or upon being charged. It is essential that you do not talk to the policemen prior to receiving suggestion from a lawyer. We are available 24-hours daily to assist you.

Once you are proven guilty, the consequences are very serious, for impaired or drunk driving first time offenders. The resulting ramifications might consist of: a criminal record, fines of $1,000 or even more, driving prohibition for one to three years, installation of ignition control device in any motor vehicle you operate for twelve months. Moreover, you might be needed to finish a course program which you need to pay for. Your car insurance surcharge would increase, up to four or five times the current rate.

For following offenses, penalties include mandatory jail time. Hence, you need to have experienced counsel to represent you and your best interests. We will offer you with a legal advise as to your likelihood of success in fighting those charges.
