

Business Lawyer Cambridge

Business Lawyer Cambridge - We provide a variety of assistance to various financing and leasing companies, financial institutions, and different non-bank lenders consisting of documenting and structuring an assortment of loan transactions. These transactions comprise lines of credit, term loans, asset-based loans, revolving credit facilities, lease financings, subordinated financings, real estate development financings and motion picture financings.

The business clients come to rely on our assistance in helping them to negotiate, arrange, and obtaining credit facilities.

Public sector financing, together with assistance structures and programs, are really familiar to our attorneys. They have broad knowledge concerning industrial revenue bond issuance, industrial development transactions, local and state development agency programs and financings.

What's more, our lawyers assist borrowers and lenders with work-outs and loan restructurings.