

Cambridge Business Law Firm

Cambridge Business Law Firm - Our firm's Business Law group knows the business objectives of our clients and assists in attaining those objectives with efficient, customized and timely legal counsel. Our clients consist of private and public businesses, partnerships and their boards of directors and executives. We act as business advisors, making use of our lawyers' multidisciplinary strengths in the full range of business law fields, such as mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, tax planning and environmental compliance. We have expertise in businesses ranging from sports and entertainment to communications and information technology.

We deal with clients with many various commercial agreements, such as the preparation of customer service agreements, license agreements, confidentiality agreements, employment agreements, supply contract agreements, project agreements, non-competition agreements, consulting agreements and management agreements.

We assist with the sale or purchase of shares or assets of corporations. This includes related due diligence, the coordination of auctions, required financing and regulatory approval under the Competition Act and other statutes. Our group has facilitated business combinations designed to be able to implement difficult business reorganizations in a tax efficient method, like for example amalgamations, "butterfly" transactions and plans of arrangement.
