If you have been hurt caused by a medical error, you may be entitled to damages. Errors made by doctors of medicine, nurses, or various health care practitioners, that result in injury, can entitle you to compensation for "general damages," otherwise referred to as pain and suffering. If you experience loss of income and ability to earn income due to your injuries, you may be entitled to compensation. Various types of compensation include home maintenance and housekeeping costs, and health care expenses not covered by your medical insurance.

Slip and Fall

If you suffer from a slip and fall incident, you may be entitled to compensation. Your entitlement to compensation would usually depend upon the circumstances of your fall. This can consist of loss of ability to earn income and loss of income, "general damages," home maintenance and housekeeping expenses, and health care costs over and above those included in your medical insurance. If the individual causing the injury has an insurance policy that can be accessed on your behalf, it is vital that legal help is sought early to prevent limitation period problems.

There are several various forms of injury which may occur from the carelessness of injuries. These may consist of wrongful death, assault, and injury sustained on premises owned by others. These losses can effect the lives of the victims and their love ones deserve compensation.
